

Sabbatical Soundbite #10: It's time! Four weeks to go!

It's time to sign up and commit to participate in this next phase of creation and fun that will build our church body.

Please use this form to sign up or indicate your interest in attending any of the upcoming sabbatical related activities and events. It will be helpful for the sabbatical team to know who, and how many, may be attending so they can plan properly for food or rides, as the needs may be. Some dates have yet to be determined but if you are on the list as interested you will be notified once they are set.
